

Hello,
I'm Kevin Panke.

I don't have a "sense" for design.

Instead, I depend on my extensive cross-media design experience. I rely on a solid strategy to build upon. I bank on my ability to work ahead of the trends. And I trust in my gift to question everything.

Honestly, I think the band, Boston, pretty much summed up my approach to design: "It's more than a feeling."

Summary of Qualifications:

- > Foundation built in the fine arts.
- > Diverse experience in all things interactive and more.
- > Knowledge in creating and executing marketing campaigns spanning web, print and viral media.
- > Integral member on many new business teams resulting in agency wins.
- > Proven team leader with strong communication and interpersonal management skills.
- > Ability to identify digital opportunities for new and existing clients.
- > Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite and Microsoft Silverlight with knowledge in CSS, HTML, XML and more.

I color for a living.
